AT SEATTLE

07 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
08 Plaintiff,) Case No. CR04-0496-JCC-JPD
09 v.)
10 AMADO VELASQUEZ,) SUMMARY REPORT OF U.S.
11 Defendant.) MAGISTRATE JUDGE AS TO ALLEGED VIOLATIONS
OF SUPERVISED RELEASE
12

13 An initial hearing on a petition for violation of supervised release was held before the 14 undersigned Magistrate Judge on November 20, 2006. The United States was represented by 15 Assistant United States Attorney Jill Otake, and the defendant by Ms. Carol Koller. The 16 proceedings were recorded on cassette tape.

17 The defendant had been charged and convicted of Distribution of Methamphetamine
18 and sentenced on or about October 14, 2005, by the Honorable John C. Coughenour to a term
19 of seven (7) days in custody with credit for time served, to be followed by five (5) years of 20 supervised release.

21 The conditions of supervised release included the requirements that the defendant
22 comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and with the standard conditions. Special
23 conditions imposed included, but were not limited to, substance-abuse and mental-health
24 treatment participation, financial disclosure, and 180 days placement in a community
25 corrections center followed by 180 days of home confinement.

26 In a Violation Report and Request for Summons dated October 24, 2006, U.S.

01 Probation Officer Christopher S. Luscher asserted the following violations by defendant of 02 the conditions of his supervised release:

03 (1) Failing to comply with the home-confinement program since September 23,
04 2006, in violation of the special condition requiring he participate in the home-confinement
05 program with electronic monitoring as directed by the probation officer for a period of 180
06 days.

07 (2) Failing to answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, on or about
08 October 15, 2006, in violation of standard condition No. 3.

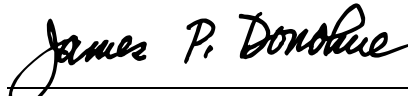

09 (3) Failing to follow instructions of the probation officer, as of October 4, 2006,
10 in violation of standard condition No. 3.

11 The defendant was advised of the allegations, and advised of his rights. Defendant
12 admitted to the violations, and waived any rights to an evidentiary hearing as to whether they 13 occurred.

14 I therefore recommend that the Court find the defendant to have violated the terms
15 and conditions of his supervised release as to violations 1, 2, and 3, and that the Court
16 conduct a hearing limited to disposition. A disposition hearing has been set before the 17 Honorable John C. Coughenour on December 8, 2006, at 9:00 a.m.

18 Pending a final determination by the Court, the defendant has been released, subject
19 to the terms of continued supervision.

20 DATED this 20th day of November, 2006.
